A Well Presented Three Bedroom Family Home, Tucked Away at the End of Dunlop Close. With A Garden that Extends Well Beyond the Property and has Huge Potential & Boasts Multiple Outbuildings.

Situation

Sayers Common is a village in the Mid Sussex District of West Sussex. With Hurstpierpoint, it forms one of the Mid Sussex parishes. It is located less than two miles north-west of Hurstpierpoint and just over a mile to Hickstead. The Village of Henfield with its beautiful Highstreet of Independent shops and the larger Town of Burgess Hill are also only a short journey away.

Situated until the 1990s on the main London to Brighton road it has become a more popular residential village since being partially bypassed by the new A23 road but access is always a main feature with this ever popular Hamlet and those who need to commute. The Duke of York Public House is a firm favourite after a local walk in the Countryside.

Description

A beautifully presented Three Bedroom Family Home, neatly tucked away at the end of this quiet close. Offering amazing Garden space, with secret areas, low level streams running under timber bridges and multiple outbuildings.

The property itself has been recently renovated, further enhancing the ability to move straight in. Once inside, the property has a fantastic flow and the ground floor is centralised around a feature log burning stove with wooden floors underfoot. The Kitchen has an elevated view of the rear garden and all of the individual areas.

Conveniently on the first floor there are three bedrooms, the main two are considered good sized doubles whilst the third is currently being utilised as a walk-in-wardrobe and dressing area. The Bathroom is finished in a neat tile splash back, complimenting the white matching sanitary-ware against the black bath-frame and brushed-brass fittings.

Other points worthy of a mention are downstairs W/C, plethora of outbuildings including Office, Garage, Workshop Snug and a Store.

This property has to be viewed to truly appreciate, not just the homely feel it exudes but the exceptional garden space that is beyond description!
