Situation

Crowlas is a popular village straddling the A30 in West Cornwall. The site is situated away from the main road in a quieter location and yet is within only a few minutes walk of the village store and the nearby Ludgvan primary school. For many the attraction of Crowlas is the close proximity to the stunning beaches and historic island castle of St Michael's Mount at Marazion and Long Rock. The internationally famous town of Penzance is less than 4 miles away where there is a wide and comprehensive range of shops, school, health and leisure facilities not to mention pubs and eateries, many specializing in fish dishes, using the freshest of catches brought into Newlyn. Other major towns such as Helston, Redruth, Camborne and Hayle are within a 20 minute drive, including St Ives on the north coast, famed for its artistic background. Penzance is also the last stop on the Paddington to Penzance railway line which puts Truro and its many varied amenities, including RCH Treliske 25 miles away and so within easy daily commuting distance.

The Property

Outline planning consent was granted on the 08/02/2024 for up to two new homes with access (all other matters reserved). Full details can be found on Cornwall Council planning portal using Application No. PA23/07658. The permission provides a rare opportunity to create up to two bespoke village homes that can be designed to the wishes of its new owners. The slope to the west creates interesting potential to build a very special home.

Services: A South West Water main runs through the centre of the site. Mains drainage and main electricity are nearby.
