On instructions of the Executor to close an Estate - a detached period extended former farmhouse providing four bedroom accommodation, set in enclosed gardens. Located in a rural position in the hamlet of Trythall, within easy reach of Penzance and Mount's Bay in the highly regarded West Penwith Peninsula.

The Property

Accessed off a minor county lane via a timber gateway leading onto a level gravelled parking area, the property comprises a former farmhouse, primarily of stone construction with latter day extension under a pitched tiled roof with part rendered elevations and benefits from PVCu double glazing and is heated by an oil-fired Grant boiler. Solar panels have been fitted to the roof.

An entrance lobby leads pass the cloakroom into the kitchen with dual aspect views into the garden, with a range of wall and floor mounted units, plumbing for a dishwasher. Living room, with a feature Inglenook fireplace housing a wood burner (not in use) with display shelves to side, beamed ceiling, with doorway leading into a garden room enjoying a southerly aspect and garden views.

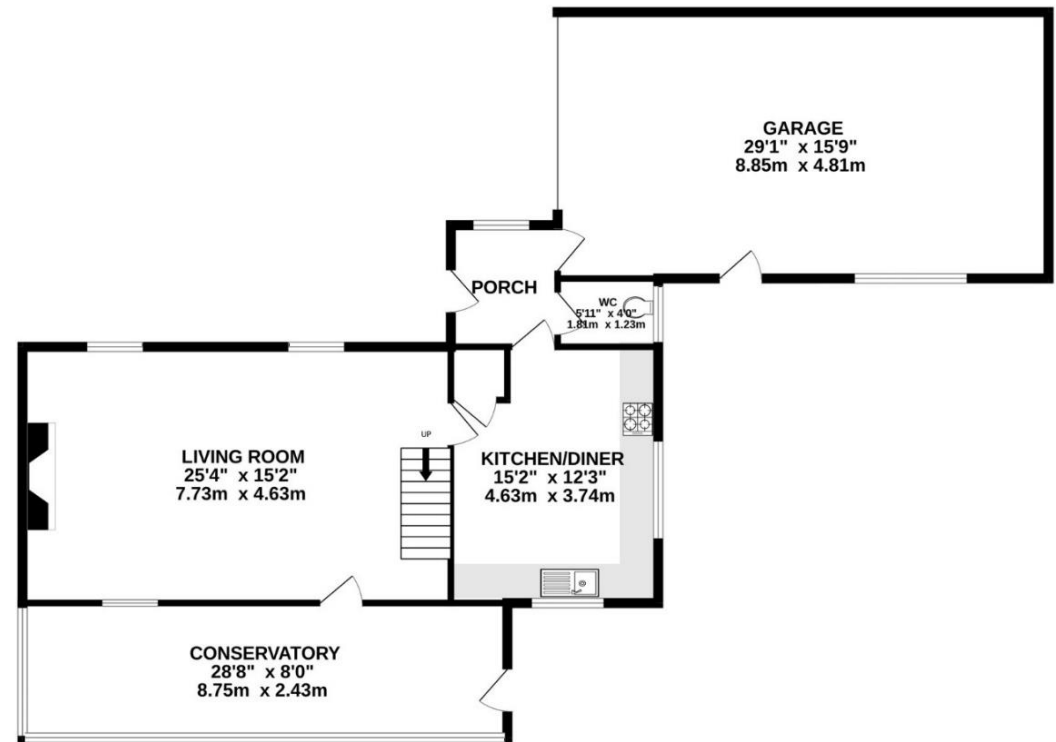

Stairs to the first-floor galleried landing with airing cupboard, and doors off to two double bedrooms, two single bedrooms and a family bathroom with a full bathroom suite.

Attached to the house with an integral door, a double garage with electric up and over door and a pedestrian door to the side garden.

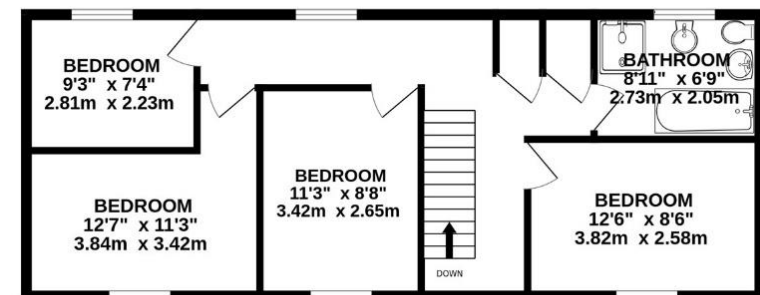

Outside

Outside, there is gravelled parking area for several cars leading to the garage. The gardens are predominantly laid to lawn with mature borders and a small pond. The gardens predominantly lie to the front and side of the house. The property is bordered by farmland to the rear, and a minor highway to the front.
