Less than three years old, an immaculate stylish family home in a quiet, yet rural location near Portreath.

- Four bedrooms (two up, two down)
- Master en-suite
- Spacious lounge
- Comprehensively equipped kitchen
- Air source underfloor heating
- Detached garage with ample parking
- Pony stable
- Child and pet safe level gardens

The Property

This bright and spacious detached house is one of just three in a small and exclusive rural development. It was only completed early 2022 and is presented in 'as new' condition.

The high specification includes a fully fitted kitchen with separate utility, a spacious lounge with patio doors and integrated sound system, and two ground floor bedrooms served by a luxurious shower room with wc.

Leading off the generous reception hall, a turning staircase ascends to the first floor where there is a huge master bedroom with en-suite, bedroom four/study and a snug. The home has underfloor heating upstairs and downstairs, utilising a Nibe 42404 air/water heat pump.

Outside the house is fronted by an extensive brick paved parking and turning area which includes a detached garage with electric door and a utility area.

Behind the garage is a small garden area with a newly built, two box pony stable. The majority of the gardens extend to the rear and enjoy a sunny aspect.

Laid mainly to level lawn the gardens are fenced and feature external lighting along the edge of the large paved patio area which enjoys a westerly aspect.

Any intending purchaser/s must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of these particulars.

Location

The picturesque port of Portreath on the north Cornish coast is approximately 2.7 miles away, whilst closer to hand are the school, shops and amenities of the busy village of Illogan, approximately 1 miles away. For a wider range of shopping, schooling, health and leisure amenities, Pool and Redruth are less than 3 miles drive. The County's main arterial route, the A30, is accessible 3 miles away at Tolvaddon junction, which means that the County town of Truro is easily commutable at approximately 10 miles.
