Situated in the traditional heart of the Cornish market town of Helston, within the conservation area, is this two bedroom, semi-detached cottage of immense charm and character. The Grade II listed residence, which benefits from mains gas central heating, is well proportioned and enjoys views towards St. Michael's Church. To the outside and at the rear of the residence is a pleasant wall enclosed garden which would seem ideal for al fresco dining. With parking being at a premium at times in the area, purchasers will, we are sure, delight in the allocated parking space which is located close to the property.

In brief, the accommodation comprises, on the ground floor, an entrance area and an open plan lounge/kitchen/diner. On the first floor is a shower room and two bedrooms.

Helston itself is a bustling market town that stands as a gateway to The Lizard Peninsula which is designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty with many beautiful beaches, coves and cliff top walks. The town has amenities that include, national stores, supermarkets, doctor surgeries, churches and also many clubs and societies. There are a number of well regarded primary schools, a comprehensive school with sixth form college and a leisure centre with indoor heated pool.
