An opportunity to purchase a semi detached, three bedroom cottage of immense charm and character located in the sought after Cornish fishing village of Porthleven.

Currently run as a successful holiday let and situated in the Breageside area of this increasingly popular Cornish fishing village is this charming, three bedroom semi-detached cottage. The residence, which benefits from double glazing, enjoys far reaching sea and coastal views encompassing Porthleven Pier, beach, Loe Bar and the rugged Cornish clifftops of the Lizard Peninsula. From its local stone facade to beamed ceilings, the cottage retains many character features whilst being enhanced, in recent years, by the current owners with a recently fitted shower room.

A real feature of the property is the outside space with a walled enclosed garden to the front with lawn areas and a path leading to the front door. At the rear of the residence potential purchaser will delight in the off road parking, which can be at a premium at times in this area and the vendor advises us that they have in the past parked 2 vehicles at the property. A large vaulted garage/workshop would seem to present an opportunity for extra accommodation or income stream, subject to any necessary planning and consents. To the side of the garage is an elevated garden with well established plants and shrubs and lawned area. This would seem an ideal place to sit back and enjoy the fine coastal outlook.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, restaurants, Public Houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.
