Situated in the popular residential area of Treza Road in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven is this three bedroom detached bungalow. The residence, which benefits from double glazing and night storage heating, enjoys views over other properties towards open countryside and has gardens to the front and rear. A driveway to the side provides parking for a number of vehicles and leads to the garage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a kitchen/diner, lounge, bathroom and three bedrooms.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, restaurants, Public Houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.

Mains electricity, water and drainage.

DIRECTIONS

From our Porthleven office head down Fore Street towards the harbour and along the harbour head passing the Kota Kai Restaurant on your right hand side. Follow the road along to the right heading away from the harbour on Methleigh Bottoms and proceed along this road taking the turning on your right hand side into Mill Lane just past Porthleven Football Club. Head along Mill Lane and turn left into Mill Close. Follow the road along and the road becomes Penponds Road. Continue and follow the road around to the right, head up the hill and take the first turning on your left hand side into Treza Road. The property will be found after a short distance on your right hand side.
