An opportunity to purchase a detached, two bedroom bungalow on the outskirts of the Cornish fishing village of Coverack.

Situated in an elevated position is this well presented property. The residence, which benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing, enjoys views over other properties and out to sea. The outside space is a real feature of the property with large gardens cradling the residence which are mainly laid to lawn. Parking is provided for a number of vehicles and a driveway leads to a garage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a hall, kitchen/diner, lounge, shower room, W.C. and two bedrooms.

Coverack itself is a Cornish fishing village situated on the Lizard Peninsula, which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. The Cove itself has a lovely sandy beach which is a popular centre for water sports that include windsurfing, stand-up paddle boarding, sailing and diving. There is an attractive harbour from which a small fleet of traditional fishing boats operate and land their daily catch. There is a public house, restaurants, a shop selling local produce and a primary school.

St Keverne village is a short drive away and has a number of shops, including a butcher's and doctors surgery whilst comprehensive schooling can be found in the nearby village of Mullion. The bustling market town of Helston which has more extensive amenities including national stores and supermarkets, is some eight miles distant.
