An opportunity to purchase an attached, two bedroom bungalow in the sought after Cornish fishing village of Porthleven.

The well proportioned residence, which requires some updating to realise its full potential, benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing. A real feature of the property is the outside space with parking to the front and to the rear is a large, relatively level lawn area. To the side of the property is a useful shed.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an entrance porch, hall, lounge/diner, kitchen, shower room, two bedrooms (the master of which benefits from an en suite bathroom) and a utility room. Accessed from the side is a store room along with a second utility room.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, restaurants, public houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.
