- EPC - C75

Situated within the popular, well respected development of The Shrubberies in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven is this four bedroom, detached executive style house. The residence, which has been arranged into reverse accommodation to take full advantage of the sea views, boasts many refinements of modern living and is well proportioned. Benefiting from oil fired central heating and double glazing, the beautifully presented property has engineered oak flooring in the first floor living spaces and a wood burner acts as a focal point for the lounge.

The outside space is a real feature of the property with a good size rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn, has a patio area and established plants and shrubs. To the side is a driveway which provides parking and leads to a garage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a hall, bathroom and four bedrooms, the master of which benefits from an en suite shower room. On the first floor is an open plan lounge, w.c. and kitchen/diner.

Porthleven is a thriving sea side Cornish fishing village with its harbour providing a focal point. Around this cluster many pubs, restaurants and businesses. The village provides amenities to cater for every day needs as well as a primary school, whilst the more comprehensive amenities of Helston are a few miles distant and these include national stores, cinema and sports centre with indoor swimming pool.

Situated between Helston and Porthleven is the beautiful Penrose Estate which is managed by The National Trust and where one may delight in the many walks and trails through the Cornish countryside around Loe Pool which is Cornwall's largest natural freshwater lake.
