An opportunity to purchase a detached, two bedroom bungalow with garage and parking in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven.

Situated within arguably one of Porthleven's most sought after addresses of The Crescent is this detached, two bedroom bungalow. The well proportioned residence, which benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing, enjoys views over the village, towards open countryside, the Bickford Smith Institute Clock Tower, pier and out to sea.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a hall, lounge/diner, kitchen, wet room, two bedrooms and an inner hall. A real feature of the residence is the outside space with gardens to both the front and rear. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with well established plants and shrubs. A driveway to the side leads to a detached garage. The rear garden is of particularly good size, is also mainly laid to lawn, has a pleasant patio area and an abundance of plants and shrubs.

The residence is current is configured as a beautifully presented two bedroom bungalow, however, subject to any necessary planning and consents, the property would seem to offer great potential for extending and re configuring.

Porthleven is a thriving seaside Cornish fishing village with its large harbour providing a focal point. Around this cluster many pubs, restaurants and businesses. The village provides amenities to cater for everyday needs as well as a primary school, whilst the more comprehensive amenities of Helston are a few miles distant and these include national stores, cinema and sports centre with indoor swimming pool.

Situated between Helston and Porthleven is the beautiful Penrose Estate, managed by The National Trust, and conveniently located for its many walks and trails through the Cornish countryside around Loe Pool, Cornwall's largest natural fresh water lake. Porthleven has a prize winning Brass Band which, on many a summer's Sunday evening, can be heard echoing around the village, creating atmosphere & ambience for both residents and visitors.
