This newly completed, beautifully finished single-storey home offers stylish and versatile accommodation in a peaceful courtyard rural setting.

The property features two generous double bedrooms, with the master boasting a luxurious en-suite shower room, complemented by a contemporary family bathroom.

The heart of the home is the open-plan living space, where an extensively fitted kitchen with integrated appliances flows seamlessly into the lounge. A pair of glazed sliding pocket doors allows you to open the space whilst entertaining or close it off for added cosiness. The lounge is light and airy, enhanced by a vaulted ceiling, a log burner, and large picture sliding doors that frame the fabulous rural views and open directly onto a spacious patio terrace.

Beyond the terrace lies a level, lawned garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining while enjoying the surrounding countryside. The property also benefits from off-road parking for two vehicles and provision for a car charging point.

Combining all the charms of country living with excellent connections to larger nearby towns and the A30, this home would suit a wide range of buyers, from those seeking a luxurious active retirement home to professionals looking for a stylish, well-connected base.

LOCATION

Situated along the end of a private track, enjoying countryside views on the outskirts of the hamlet of Farms Common is this newly completed conversion finished to an exceptional standard. Farms Common is conveniently positioned within close driving distance to the larger towns of Helston, Redruth and Camborne where a number of amenities can be found including shops, restaurants and good transport links. Helston is famed for it's historic Flora Day celebrations on 8 May when the town is bedecked with greenery, bluebells and gorse and throughout the day dancers weave in and out of shops, houses and gardens following the Helston Town Band playing the famous Flora Dance and ushering in the Summer. The town now stands as the gateway to The Lizard Peninsula and offers a comprehensive range of amenities including a fine array of interesting shops and a wealth of traditional pubs together with schooling, community hospital, surgery, leisure and recreational facilities.
