A wonderfully unique Grade II Listed home full of character and charm offering spacious and versatile three double bedroom accommodation with two bathrooms and plenty of reception space.

Originally believed to have formed part of the garden buildings of Lismore House, this Grade II listed property has been thoughtfully and sensitively converted to create a home of remarkable character. Showcasing bespoke joinery, interesting and attractive architectural features, and beautifully presented accommodation, it offers a rare combination of historic charm and modern versatility.

Tucked away in one of the older and most historic parts of town, the property enjoys a secluded setting while remaining exceptionally convenient for local amenities. The layout is both spacious and flexible, making it equally appealing to a professional couple seeking a striking and individual home with ample space to work and entertain, or to a family with older children who will appreciate both the space and warm and welcoming feel.

The accommodation includes three double bedrooms, the master benefitting from an en-suite, together with a family bathroom. The dual aspect sitting room, complete with a log burner, is both large and cosy, while a separate dining room provides further space for entertaining. At the heart of the home lies the fabulous kitchen/breakfast room on the lower ground floor, opening directly onto the delightful courtyard-style garden – a perfect spot for morning coffee or summer evenings or perhaps listening to the band in “the gardens” on Flora Day!!! A utility room, cloakroom and off-road parking further enhance the practicality of the home.

Full of warmth, history, and charm, this is a truly special property that must be seen to be fully appreciated. Viewing is essential.
