Situated in the residential area of Gibson Way in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven is this four bedroom detached house. The residence, which benefits from double glazing, is well proportioned and enjoys sea glimpses over other properties. To the outside are gardens to the front and rear which are mainly laid to lawn with the rear garden also having a parking area and a garage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an entrance area, hall, lounge, kitchen/diner, utility area and completing the ground floor a study/bedroom four. On the first floor is a bathroom and three further bedrooms.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, restaurants, Public Houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.
