Situated in the popular residential area of St Peters Way, in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven, is this end of terrace, three bedroom family home. The residence, which benefits from oil fired central heating and double glazing, is well proportioned and enjoys views over the village towards open countryside. A real highlight is the basement area which provides a useful utility space and storage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a porch, open plan kitchen/diner and completing the ground floor a lounge. On the first floor is a bathroom and three bedrooms. To the outside are gardens to the front, rear and side which boasts well established plants and shrubs and a pleasant decked area. To the front of the property is a parking area for a number of vehicles.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
