Property Description

What a unique opportunity! This traditional end of terrace cottage stands on a corner plot at the junction of Main Road and Manor Lane in the highly sought after village of Harlston which lies just outside of Tamworth and is fantastically position for commuting via the excellent surrounding road network yet offering all the facilities of a quaint village. Being very deceptively spacious the property was originally two houses which have been knocked through to create one.

The property has up until the last two or three years been run as the local Post Office with additional bed and breakfast accommodation.

The main accommodation provides four en suite double bedrooms together with a fifth bedroom/nursery leading off bedroom one. The ground floor incorporates a sitting room and open plan conservatory, very large fitted kitchen and large dining room, laundry room/second kitchen with toilet facilities leading off, together with the Post Office shop which runs across the front of the property and could be utilised as a reception room.

The rear garden incorporates a garage and gated driveway together with two lawned garden areas with boundary screening hedges.

Situated opposite St Matthews church in the heart of the village the accommodation is served by oil fired central heating and has UPVC double glazed to the majority of the rooms.

Opportunities to acquire properties such as this are rare and viewing is highly recommended. In more detail the accommodation comprises:-
