An enchanting property comprising two separate houses, set in just over one acre of grounds in the heart of the Brechfa Forest, with no near neighbours, offering complete privacy and seclusion.

Originally a farmstead, Cwmere comprises an original cottage and separate barn conversion, which the current owners have meticulously renovated. The stunning interiors have many unique features created from wood gathered from the immediate surroundings, including staircases, window-sills, countertops and even toilet roll holders. The current owners live in one and use the second for guests. They have a number of dogs who very much enjoy the many miles of walks in the surrounding area. It is an incredibly reluctant sale, but due to relocation they must let go of this wonderful property.

For quick supplies there is a local garage within a few miles, whilst nearby Carmarthen provides a full range of supermarkets, shops, doctors, dentists and access onto the A48 dual carriageway.
