A modern three bedroom detached house with two self-catering holiday units, set in approx. 59 acres of owner-occupied croft, in a tranquil, elevated position with panoramic countryside views.

We understand the house was built in 2000 and it sits within beautifully maintained gardens and grounds with wonderful far reaching panoramic views over the surrounding moorland and countryside. The two recently completed self-catering holiday units have potential to generate income and there is a further annual income of around £700 to £800 from a Forestry Grant Scheme, payable until 2027.

Glengrasco is a small crofting community about two miles from Portree, the capital of Skye. Set around a natural harbour, Portree is a bustling port, thriving business / cultural centre and offers a wide range of shops, services and leisure facilities including a hospital and medical centre, doctors, dentists, primary and secondary schools offering both Gaelic and English medium classes, library, swimming pool, supermarkets, hotels, bars, cafes and restaurants.
