Inside

The extended ground floor living space provides a delightful sitting room with exposed beams and wood burning stove plus a former tailors shop which is now a fabulous snug with a high vaulted ceiling. The "farmhouse" style dining kitchen features an oil fired Aga and a range of base and wall storage cupboards complemented by a conservatory and utility room with shower leading off.

Stripped pine period doors lead off the first floor landing into 3 bedrooms (1 with fitted wardrobes) and a bathroom.

Other internal features of note include double glazing and an oil fired central heating system to radiators.

Outside

A driveway to the side of the cottage provides generous parking and access into a substantial triple garage and workshop which was built in the early 1990's to provide approx. 672 sq ft of ground floor space with a further 440 sq ft of storage space above with a 7'4" max head height. Please note that any residential planning potential that this garage may have should be explored through North York Moors planning department.
