WJ Meade are delighted to present this Victorian terraced house on a highly coveted residential turning within the boundaries of Mile End Park. The property offers huge potential to develop into a spacious four bedroom family home with planning permission in place. Currently arranged as three bedrooms, bathroom, kitchen, guest WC and storage basement. The wider profile of the house accommodates a carriage way presently a car port with stable doors into the rear garden which itself extends to a width in excess of 7 meters and backs onto wooded parkland for a rare sense of privacy and nature.
