A rare opportunity to acquire a unique period Grade II property in an outstanding location in the popular West Hull village of Welton. The property offers substantial and flexible family accommodation in the centre of Welton with views from all rooms of the village green, village pond, St Helen's Church or the courtyard garden.

Retaining many period features, the property has an extremely flexible layout with three attractive reception rooms plus a ground floor shower room which provides the opportunity to have a ground floor bedroom. To the first floor are four double bedrooms and a house bathroom. Overlooking The Green to the front and the village pond and church to the side, the property has an attractive, enclosed and private courtyard garden. In addition there is a large garage and store and if required further parking could be created by reinstating the original double gates leading off from Church Street. Set in a conversation area.

LOCATION

The property is located in the centre of the popular and attractive village of Welton. Overlooking the central Green and adjacent to the village pond, the property also lies conveniently close to the highly regarded public house The Green Dragon, coffee shop, village hall and club, and also to South Hunsley Academy.

Standing on the Wolds Way long distance footpath at the foot of Welton Dale, Welton is a picture postcard village within easy reach of the national road (A63/M62) and rail systems (Brough mainline railway station being 1.5 miles away). Located within two miles of the village of Brough with its many facilities, two supermarkets and a GP surgery.
