Occupying a prime position at the head of a quiet cul-de-sac, this impressive detached bungalow presents a significant opportunity for a variety of purchasers. The property has been subject to extension and remodelling, now offering a highly adaptable layout with the potential for up to four bedrooms.

Having previously served as a family residence, the bungalow benefits from a mature, easily maintained, and notably private garden. A substantial westerly-facing conservatory provides a valuable additional living space, complemented by the convenience of off-street parking and a garage. These features collectively enhance the property's broad appeal to a diverse range of buyers.

The interior is attractively appointed throughout, and the property is offered to the market with the distinct advantage of no onward chain. Early viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the scope and quality of this exceptional bungalow.

LOCATION

The location of the property is one of its highlights being situated at the head of the small cul-de-sac that forms Conifer Close and in the centre of the much sought after Maplewood Avenue/Nunburnholme Park established development.

Accessed by car via Springhead Lane from Willerby Road the property lies between the amenities of Willerby and Hull with further pedestrian or cycle access onto the amenities of Beverley Road and Springfield Way.
