Raywell House is a magnificent manor house, originally built in 1803. It was designed by Marmaduke Pycok of Wakefield for Mr Daniel Sykes who was the local MP for Hull and Beverley. The manor house itself was converted in 2007 into luxury apartments and the extensive grounds now contain luxury holiday lodges and a small bistro. The beautiful house overlooks superb gardens and countryside, making this such a great location.

This second floor penthouse offers bespoke living at its very best! The apartment enjoys oil central heating and in brief has welcoming hallway, lounge with dual aspect over the grounds, bespoke dining kitchen with a host of built-in appliances and French doors opening onto the balcony terrace, utility room, two bedrooms and two bathrooms. On entering Raywell House there is a luxurious and well-maintained communal entrance hall with sweeping staircase leading to the first floor. Both the ground floor and first floor fire doors provide access up to Apartment 9.

The communal gardens encase the property and provide great outdoor space overlooking open countryside to the front. There is a non-allocated residents car park to the rear which operates on a first come first served basis. Offered for sale with no forward chain, the apartment now awaits its new owners to fully embrace living in one of the finest locations in the area. We highly recommend an internal viewing to fully appreciate the wealth, style and position that this truly unique apartment has to offer.

LOCATION

Located on Riplingham Road, there are remote control electric gates which give access into the grounds. There is a small bistro within walking distance of Raywell House which offers refreshments, and the property is ideally located for commutability into Cottingham and Beverley.

Nearby motorway access is via the A63/M62 where further trunk routes can be located over the Humber Bridge. Cottingham has four primary schools and a highly regarded secondary school.
