This imposing, Victorian semi-detached family home was built in the late 1800's as a detached dwelling which was converted into two large, beautiful homes. With over 4500 square feet, the beautiful, empathetically finished interior offers a harmonious blend of functionality and aesthetics, creating stylish elevations throughout with space and versatility for family living. The property is presented to the market with no onward chain.

The property is positioned over three floors with three receptions, bespoke kitchen, utility and WC. To the first floor there are three DOUBLE bedrooms and a four piece house bathroom. To the second floor there are a further three good size bedrooms and a modern house shower room.

The property sits at the heart of this generous plot with private parking for several vehicles and the addition of a converted Coach House which has been refurbished to provide a garage with workshop area and two first floor areas.

The gardens are well maintained and provide the perfect backdrop to the beautiful architecture of the house.

There is so much to see with this property that only a viewing would truly portray. Newland Park is something extremely special and this property is not to disappoint.
