LOCATION

Barker Close is a small cul-de-sac of five properties located just off Jesmond Road, in turn off New Village Road in Cottingham providing ideal access to the village centre.

Cottingham is listed as one of the UK's largest villages and is a really diverse, superb East Riding village with a railway station connecting to further afield, being equally positioned between the historic market town of Beverley and Hull city centre where a good range of further amenities can be located. Nearby motorway access is via the A63/M62 where further trunk routes can be located over the Humber Bridge. Cottingham has three primary schools and a highly regarded secondary school. Private schools are Tranby School and Hymers College.
