Immaculately presented and offering huge potential, this bespoke house was built in 2014 in a delightful position centrally located on a large plot extending to just over 2 acres. Discretely positioned and with a large area of garden and two paddocks, the property also has the benefit of a large shed (45' x 25') which may offer the opportunity for more commercial usage (subject to the necessary permissions). In addition to this there is stabling and a further large garage.

Situated in a convenient position close to Cottingham, viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION

The property is located to the east of the extremely popular village of Cottingham and on the "no through road" forming North Moor Lane. Accessed off Dunswell Road and with convenient access through to the main road linking Cottingham with Hull, the property is in a convenient location to access the broader array of amenities both in the village and further afield in Hull City Centre.

Three piece sanitary suite comprising panelled bath, pedestal wash basin, close coupled WC and window to the front elevation.

OUTSIDE

To some buyers it will be the grounds of the property which are of most interest. Offering great flexibility of use and currently divided into gardens and two separate paddocks.

The property is approached over a wide and stoned driveway which leads down to the house and the 1 1/2 sized detached garage (25'3 x 12'6) with up & over door, light and power. The driveway continues down the side of the paddocks to a very large modern shed (45' x 25') which is of a size to allow commercial use subject to the necessary permissions. Within the paddocks is a stable block, along with a further shed and log store closer to the house. All beautifully tended and well fenced.
