Introduction

A fantastic opportunity to purchase this spacious and very well presented detached family home situated at the end of Cardiff Road in Newport, just minutes from excellent amenities and main road connections. Within walking distance there are local shops, bus stops and well regarded schools as well as the popular Tredegar Park.

The property offers generous room proportions and is very well presented throughout.

On entering, we are welcomed into the porch which further leads through to the main hallway. Doors lead off to a spacious, bay-fronted lounge, dining room, conservatory and modern fitted kitchen with adjoining utility room and WC. Upstairs, the landing leads off to three bedrooms (two doubles, one single) and family bathroom.

Outside, the frontage offers parking for three cars comfortably, plus a detached single garage. Side access leads to the rear where there is a low maintenance side and rear garden.
