

ASH COTTAGE

BRICK KILN LANE, SOUTH LOPHAM, DISS, IP22 2JS

A beautifully presented, spacious detached family home, brimming with character. Occupies a serene rural location on a half acre plot (STMS).

This delightful period detached house, which is well maintained and brimming with character, provides ideal family accommodation in a peaceful rural location. Despite it's idyllic setting, it benefits from excellent road connections and proximity to the market town of Diss. Upon Entering the home, you are immediately welcomed by a spacious kitchen/breakfast room, featuring ample kitchen units and a striking open chimney breast housing a range cooker. From this hub, doors lead to both the Study and the Sitting Room, while a staircase ascends to the first floor. The Study has double aspect views and exposed red brick chimney breast housing a wood burning stove. The sitting room is truly charming, boasting exposed timbers, an inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove and pamment floor. A garden room, accessible from the sitting room, offers double doors opening to the exterior. On the opposite side of the sitting room fireplace, an impressively sized dining room awaits, also rich in character with another inglenook fireplace and wood-burning stove, wooden floor as well as a secondary staircase to the first floor. A door from the dining room leads to an inner hallway providing access to a shower room and utility room. The first floor of the property offers four bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The property is set on a lovely half acre plot (STMS) accessed by a wide tarmac driveway, providing plenty of off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leading to the double garage. There are expansive lawn areas, a variety of useful outbuildings and a separate private rear terrace. A charming brick and flint wall with an opening, reveals an additional lawn area and the remains of a flint and stone building hinting at potential for a separate dwelling, subject to obtaining the required consents. The garden and the property are surrounded by open countryside.

AGENT'S NOTES

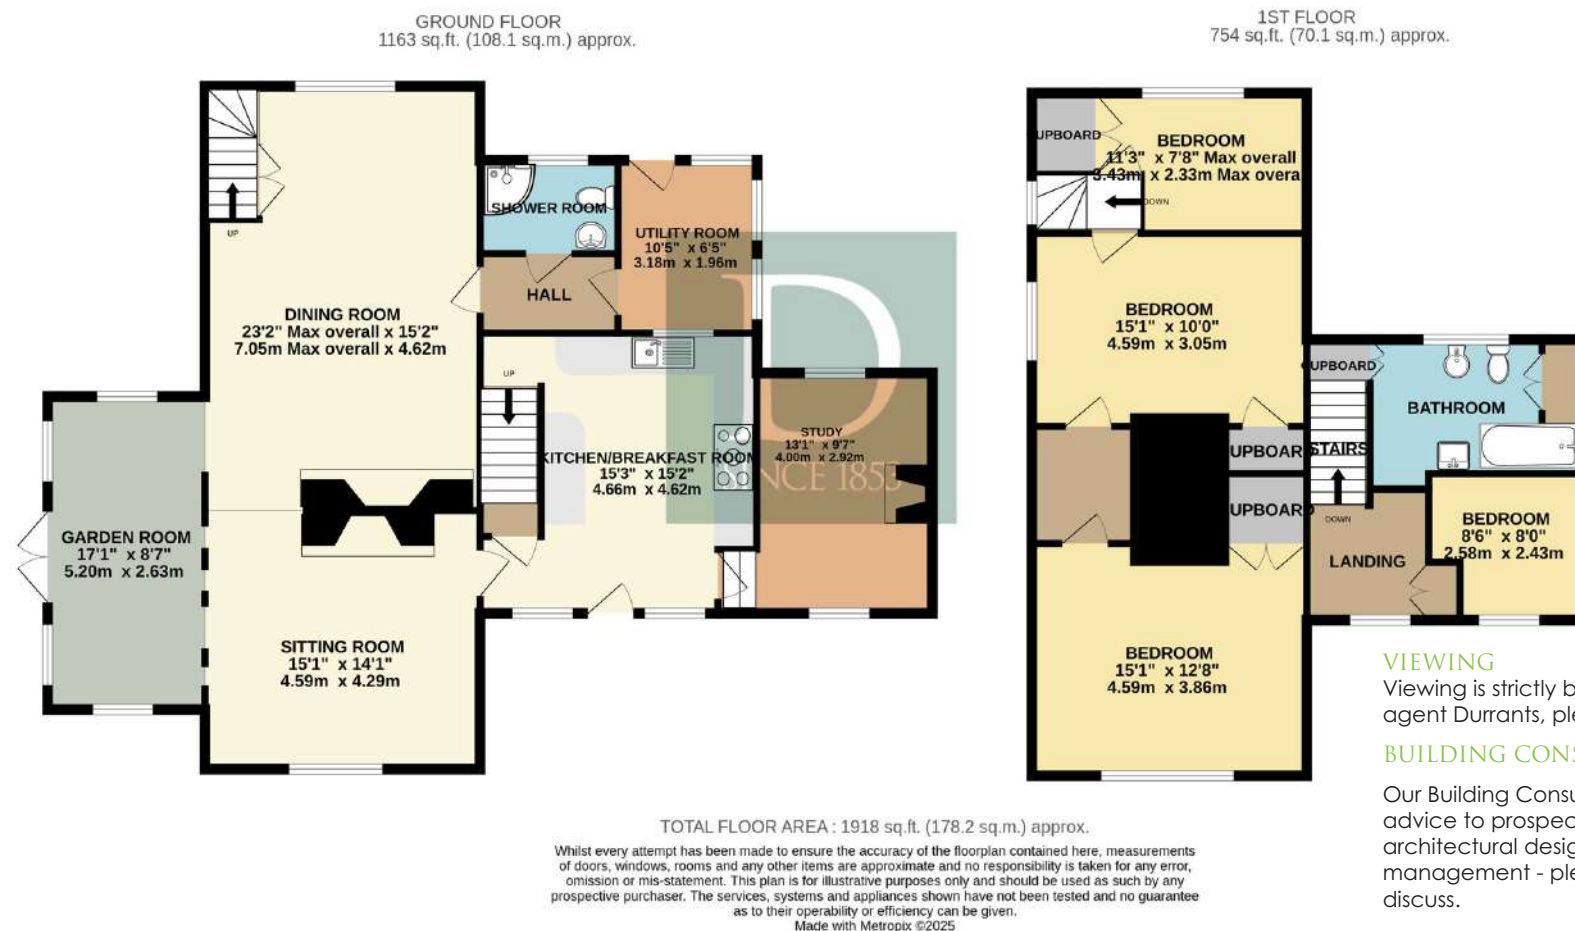

1: There are reasonable prospects of obtaining planning permission for an annexe in the garden where historically buildings stood. This could be undertaken under householder permitted development rights, or via a householder planning application. This would need to be subject to the usual planning permissions and investigation into the implications regarding the covenant.

2:The Property previously had a thatched roof and suffered a fire in 1995. Insurance claim was made subsequently the roof covering was changed to what it is now as well as all electrics and plumbing.
