LOCATION

This property stands in a well-secluded plot which is positioned at the end of a small and varied residential cul-de-sac known as The Green, which leads off the main road running through the village.

Old Ellerby is a small rural village which has not been spoilt by overdevelopment. The village lies about 1 mile to the south of New Ellerby and is well placed for access to the city of Hull (about 9 miles to the city centre), the market town of Beverley (about 10 miles) and Hornsea (about 8 miles) on the East Yorkshire coast. The parish population of Ellerby (which incorporates both Old & New Ellerby) is 396 (1991 census). The parish has 2 public houses and a church.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation has been beautifully refurbished throughout by the current owners to a particularly high standard, has mains gas central heating via hot water radiators, uPVC double glazing, solid 'Oak' internal doors, and is arranged on one floor as follows:

CENTRAL HALL

OUTSIDE

The bungalow stands in a particularly generous plot with well thought out garden areas which benefit from southerly and westerly aspects and enjoy a great deal of privacy and seclusion.

To the front is a large block paved driveway and parking court which provides ample parking and leads to a double garage. There is a large, mainly lawned foregarden with mature hedgerow.

To the eastern side of the property is a useful storage area along with a timber built garden shed, and a greenhouse in front of a vegetable garden. A generous patio adjoins the immediate rear of the lounge with a raised lawn wrapping around the southern and western boundaries where there is an ornamental garden pond, rockery and a number of mature shrubs, fruit trees, hedgerow and a timber built summerhouse. There is a double outside electric socket on the wall of the garden room and a double electric socket in the summer house. There is also two outside taps (one at the kitchen and one round the back near the shed and greenhouse) and external lighting.

DOUBLE GARAGE

17'4 x 17'9 (5.28m x 5.41m)
Automatic up & over main doors, power and light laid on.

SERVICES

All mains services are available or connected to the property.
