A simply stunning cottage boasting well appointed accommodation with a host of period features and high-quality finishes throughout.

This charming cottage enjoys a central location within popular village of Brandesburton, has delightful gardens which include a semi walled main garden, a wildlife garden with summerhouse and a driveway and garage.

LOCATION

This property enjoys a central location in the popular village of Brandesburton fronting onto Cross Hill, which leads from Main Street to meet Boardman Lane.

Brandesburton itself is a well regarded North Holderness village which lies just off the main A165 Hull to Bridlington road. The village has a parish population of around 1522 (2011 census) and is convenient for access to the city of Hull (about 15 miles), the market towns of Beverley (about 8 miles) and Driffild (about 10 miles), as well as the East Yorkshire coast. The village is served by local shops, two public houses, a Chinese restaurant & take-away, it's own primary/junior school and a number of recreational facilities including an 18 hole golf course.
