LOCATION

This property stands in a generous plot and enjoys a choice residential location in Northumberland Avenue, which leads off Atwick Road on the northern side of the town.

Hornsea is a small East Yorkshire coastal town which has a resident population of a little over 8,000. The town offers a good range of local amenities including a range of shops, bistros and restaurants, schooling for all ages and a host of recreational facilities including sailing and fishing on Hornsea Mere, as well as the beach and seaside amenities, a leisure centre and an 18 hole golf course. The town is also well known for the Hornsea Freeport, a large out of town retail shopping village and leisure park. The town lies within 18 miles drive of the city of Hull, 13 miles of the market town of Beverley and about 25 miles from the M62.

OUTSIDE

The house is approached from the road over a gravelled driveway which is shared with Pelham House. A gated, private entrance drive provides lots of parking space and leads through a further gate to an additional gravelled parking area if required. A large block paved courtyard adjoins the Coach House and is flanked on one side by a rockery garden and a lawned garden on the other side with a gravelled SUN TERRACE. There is outside lighting to illuminate the courtyard, a substantial brick OUTBUILDING which provides useful storage space with a mezzanine and an adjoining covered storage area. For those with green fingers there is a bridge leading to the allotments which adjoin the rear of the property, one of which is currently tended by the owners of Netherley.

TENURE

The tenure of this property is understood to be freehold (confirmation to be provided by the vendors solicitors).

COUNCIL TAX

The property has been placed in Band C for the purpose of council tax.
