Yorkshire Coast Living at The Nest

An impressively large detached dormer bungalow, the Guillemot provides 1506 sq. ft of living space. A welcoming entrance gives access to a dining room, a separate living room and the spacious kitchen dayroom with French doors to the rear garden and a handy utility room. Bedroom one with ensuite and a W/C are also located on the ground floor. Two further large double bedrooms, a vast landing with space suitable for a study area, and the family bathroom complete this desirable home. Externally, there is a separate detached garage and front and rear gardens. With only 1 Guillemot available, this is a truly unique home.

Street Scene

Flamborough, nestled on the stunning East Yorkshire Coast, is a picturesque fishing village with a rich maritime history. Its charming bays and traditional cottages offer a glimpse into a bygone era.

Beyond its fishing heritage, Flamborough boasts a breathtaking natural beauty including the towering chalk cliffs of Flamborough Head with their dramatic seabird colonies, whilst the village itself offers a tranquil escape with its quaint streets, cosy pubs and stunning coastal walks.

Flamborough is renowned for its lighthouses, but also benefits from excellent shopping facilities, Doctor's surgery, primary school and good village recreational amenities. The holiday resort town of Bridlington is easily accessible by road or bus and is some 4 miles South of the village.
