LOCATION

Flamborough, nestled on the stunning East Yorkshire Coast, is a picturesque fishing village with a rich maritime history. Its charming bays and traditional cottages offer a glimpse into a bygone era.

Beyond its fishing heritage, Flamborough boasts a breathtaking natural beauty including the towering chalk cliffs of Flamborough Head with their dramatic seabird colonies, whilst the village itself offers a tranquil escape with its quaint streets, cosy pubs and stunning coastal walks.

Flamborough is renowned for its lighthouses, but also benefits from excellent shopping facilities, Doctor's surgery, primary school and good village recreational amenities. The holiday resort town of Bridlington is easily accessible by road or bus and is some 4 miles South of the village.
