Introduction

This is a rare and exciting opportunity to have a lifestyle property as it offers so much flexibility. You could keep it all as is, a characterful family home which itself offers flexible living and two established, high spec holiday lets that generate a comfortable income and have been featured in the Sun Times Travel Magazine, The Observer, and The Wild Guide. You could decide to enjoy multi generational living and change the barn back to residential use and there is also the option for equestrian use of the additional three acres or as a smallholding. This really is an exciting property and proposition that doesn't come along often and we would love to show you around so call 01432 266007 to discuss and book your viewing. THE VENDORS ARE SELLING CHAIN FREE.
