Property Description

From the moment you enter the property you start to see the period features that show its history, the layout is quite practical and lends itself well to family living, firstly you have two receptions rooms, a snug with wood burning stove and the original bread oven, there is then a second sitting room again with a wood burning stove and both rooms have ceiling beams. The utility room has beautiful wooden units, a belfast sink, space for the washing machine and a door to a courtyard patio area. From the inner hallway you have the dining room that also gives you access to the courtyard patio area and has exposed stone wall, door into cloakroom with toilet and wash hand basin. The kitchen/breakfast room has bespoke, handmade units, space for fridge/freezer, a belfast sink and a stunning Aga. A door from the kitchen leads you into the main sitting room which has ceiling beams and a fireplace with a wood burning stove and thick slate hearth.

Upstairs the landing gives access to all five bedrooms and the two bathrooms, both have white suites, one is a three piece with bath, toilet and feature wash hand basin and the other is a four piece with a freestanding roll top bath, walk in shower, toilet and wash hand basin.

Gardens & Parking

The gardens are a particular feature of the property as they're of an irregular shape so have interest and are not overlooked so offer great privacy. You have a beautiful courtyard style seating area that leads out to the side where you'll find a wooden five bar gate that takes you into the paddock area. The gardens wrap around to the front where you overlook open countryside and have some lovely seating areas, flower beds and boarders and selection of trees.

There is an impressive driveway with raised turning circle and leads you onto a detached double Oak framed garage with double opening doors and wood store to the side.

Location

The property is set in a lovely rural position approximately 15 miles South of Hereford and 10 miles North of Abergavenny. The nearby village of Ewyas Harold has a excellent array of facilities including: village store, fish and chip shop, butchers, public house, restaurant, doctors surgery, village primary school, vets and various other businesses. The area is surrounded by spectacular countryside with the Black Mountains and Golden Valley all within easy reach, so it is ideal for walkers and anyone who enjoys the outdoors.

Services

Air Source Heat Pump, mains electric is connected to the property, private water supply, and private drainage to a septic tank.
