Introduction

This charming period cottage has double glazing and LPG central heating throughout and provides a wonderful blend of modern convenience with traditional character features. In brief the accommodation comprises; kitchen/breakfast room with access to an attic bedroom via fold down ladder, fully tiled shower room, dining room, living room, two double bedrooms and an outside home office, workshop and garage.

Property Description

The property is entered either via the original porch which leads directly into the lounge or via the double glazed door into the kitchen/breakfast room that consists of a tiled floor, wall and base cupboards under a wooden worktop with tiled splashbacks, range style cooker with an extractor fan over, double glazed windows to the side and rear, Belfast sink, plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher, wall mounted Worcester boiler. Access to the attic room above is via a folding ladder and has a window to the rear, radiator and eaves storage (limited headroom). A door from the kitchen leads to the fully tiled bathroom with key hole bath and shower over, vanity sink unit, WC and obscure double glazed window to the rear.

A wooden latch door from the kitchen opens up to the dining room with double glazed window, radiator and features lovely exposed wooden wall beams which act as a divider separating the two reception rooms, the other side is the cosy living room which has a prominent stone fireplace with inset stove and wooden mantle over, exposed wall beams, door to the porch and door to bedroom two. Bedrooms one & two are both good sized double rooms accessed from the living area via wooden latch doors and both feature exposed wooden wall beams, radiators and double glazed windows.

Gardens & Parking

Approached from the road via an ample tarmac driveway which provides parking for several vehicles and leads to the garage via a metal up and over door. A pedestrian wooden gate gives access to the house and gardens and forms part of an enclosed fence with hedging that serves to provide privacy to the property as well as significantly reducing any noise.

One side of the garage is currently used as a workshop with work bench and shelving, window to the side and further door into the garage that has a metal up and over door to the front, power and light.

To the rear of the garages is an office space, currently used to work from home, with double glazed window overlooking the gardens, electric heating and inset ceiling spotlights.

There is a further lock up storage shed and two open storage sheds as well a wood store and LPG store at the rear of the house.

The private and secluded gardens are a particular feature of this property and extend to all sides including a gravel seating area at the front, lawns, large patio area with built in BBQ, decked seating area and at the far end of the garden is a further decked area and lawn enclosed by mature trees, shrubs and flowers, enclosed to one side by hedge and to the other side is open wooden fencing to the adjacent common land.
