Guide Price

£2,500,000

A most attractive stone house set in beautiful gardens enjoying fine views over rolling Derbyshire countryside, together with reception hall/snug, sitting room, snug, living kitchen, conservatory, superb drawing room, utility, office, boot room, shower room, fabulous master suite, 5 further character bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a detached holiday cottage with ground floor accommodation, triple garage, store, two stables and about 9 acres.

Situation

The Meadows is situated in a rural location on high ground just east of Carsington reservoir about 1 ½ miles north of Kirk Ireton, a popular village which has a highly regarded Primary school, shop, Village Hall, Pub and Church. The small market town of Wirksworth is within 3 miles and Ashbourne is about 8 miles, Matlock about 7 miles and Derby about 14 miles with access to the M1 junction 28 about 17 miles.

The Meadows is approached off a private road, Sitch Lane, and then over a long drive which emerges through a wood to reveal the house and buildings which occupy a striking position with wonderful views. Carsington Water can be seen from some windows of the first floor and the paddock which adjoins the house.

Background and Accommodation

The Meadows, which was formerly known as Hasker Farm Cottage, has been substantially and sympathetically extended in recent years by the current owners to provide an excellent family home with the principal rooms organised to fully enjoy the aspect, views and beautiful garden which lies around it and is mostly contained within stone walling.

The Garden House, a one bedroom holiday cottage, is tucked away to the side with its own garden and parking areas.

There is convenient parking space around the house with easy access to the stone garage and courtyard.

50 acres of land is available by separate negotiation.

Agents Notes

- The property is located off a private road, Sitch Lane and there will be shared maintenance costs for the upkeep of the road with the other road users.
- The holiday cottage is held in a separate legal title. The house and land form part of another legal title and only part of the land within this title is being sold.
- The area of 3 acres is estimated only and is to be calculated precisely once the field boundaries have been erected.
