Beautifully Presented Semi-Detached Cottage

Description

Plas Arfon is ideally situated to make the most of this beautiful part of Snowdonia. Just a short distance away is Adventure Parc Snowdonia with the worlds first artificial surf lagoon. The beautiful coastline of Llandudno, the Gt. Orme and onwards to Anglesey is easily accessible from this lovely cottage.

Tal y Bont is located between the medieval walled town of Conwy and its castle to the north and the popular village of Betws-y-Coed to the south. The beautifully presented accommodation of this semi-detached cottage includes open plan lounge with sliding doors onto a seating area, electric fire, but with a flue fitted for a log burner, kitchen with dishwasher, washing machine, fridge freezer and electric oven and hob with breakfast bar. On the first floor there are two bedrooms with original beams and shower room. From the master bedroom are superb countryside views up the Conwy Valley. The property has electric underfloor heating and UPVC windows.

Plas Arfon is a quaint little cottage, which has been ran as a successful holiday let, and is sold fully furnished – making it a great investment opportunity, with no upward chain.

Location

Conveniently located in the Conwy Valley, Tal y Bont is just six miles from the historic town of Conwy with its castle and harbour, as well as the local post office there are two primary schools, train station and shops. Plas Arfon is also close to Surf Snowdonia, the first man made surfing lagoon in the world, and there is easy access to Betws-y-Coed and the heart of the Snowdonia Mountains.

Directions

From our Conwy office go around the one way system to the Castle and go straight on at the mini roundabout through the archway in the direction of Trefriw. Proceed along this road for approximately 4 miles until you reach the village of Tyn y Groes. Continue along this road until you reach the village of Tal y Bont, pass the post office, and take the next left where Plas Arfon can be found on the left.
