Three Bedroom House Occupying A Large Plot With Superb Countryside Views

Description

A spacious three bedroom semi-detached house situated on a large plot and enjoying superb views of the mountains, estuary and Conwy Castle to the first floor.

Located in a sought after residential location, this property is close to the centre of Deganwy village which benefits from a lovely marina and just a short drive into Conwy and Llandudno.

The property has potential to extend to the side and/or build a small dwelling in the garden (subject to planning).

The accommodation comprises: Hallway with under-stairs storage, lounge with bay window, dining room with log burner, kitchen with space for fridge/freezer. Door leading into the garage, good size conservatory with french doors leading onto the garden. To the first floor: Landing, two double bedrooms making the most of beautiful views, a single bedroom and family bathroom with over bath shower and cupboard housing the boiler, separate W.C. UPVC double glazing and Worcester boiler.

To the front there is a good size driveway and double garage. To the rear and side there is a large garden laid to lawn, a paved patio area with an area laid to stone chippings, walled boundaries, an array of bushes and side gated access.
