Location

Greenacres occupies a prominent location on the East side of Preston Park Avenue and within sought after 'Golden Triangle'; formerly the Stanford Estate built between 1876 and 1898 and being directly opposite and with elevated views over Preston Park.

Popular with road and rail commuters due to its central setting for Preston Park and Brighton station, while London Road now offers an ever-growing range of bars, cafe's, restaurants, shops & the famous Duke of York's Picture House which is within walking distance from this property.

Also lying between Blakers Park and the Fiveways Village stores to the East, and in the West is the picturesque Preston Park itself, with 63 acres of parkland - well used by Brighton residents and featuring two cafe's, tennis courts, cycle velodrome, various other fields and pitches and pathways/trails for running and jogging as well as hosting many local and international events.

Frequent bus services to Brighton seafront and Brighton city centre can be found along Preston Road, with various restaurants, bars and pubs opening along the emerging London Road and at Preston Circus, whilst Preston Park station is 0.6 miles away and Brighton mainline station is only 0.8 miles away.
