Temple Street, Brighton

An attractive three storey property in an extremely popular no through road in central Brighton. The spacious accommodation comprises of a through lounge/dining room, kitchen, four double bedrooms, a large bathroom and separate cloakroom. Outside there is a Westerly aspect patio garden. Temple Street is a really attractive street of period three and four storey houses with a superb community feel. Temple Street was blocked off to traffic at the Western Road end at the end of 2019. There is an almost exhaustive range of independent shops, bars, coffee shops and Waitrose supermarket all within walking distance. Brighton seafront is around 100 metres away and Brighton railway station with its mainline links to London is 5-10 minutes walk away.
