Welcome to Bure Gardens

Often referred to as the 'Gateway to the Broads' due to its inaugural setting of the navigable portion of the River Bure, you will discover the picturesque riverside village of Coltishall.

The River Bure ribbons its way through this charming Norfolk village, connecting its community and landscape since before 1231. It's here you discover Bure Gardens, beautiful new homes for a growing community located within the famous Norfolk Broads yet within easy reach of the Coast and City.

A closer look at Coltishall

Coltishall & The Broads

The River Bure, woven into the village landscape and offering an abundance of outdoor lifestyle. Enjoy riverwalks, kayaking, boating, paddle boarding and even wild swimming from Horstead Mill or Coltishall Common. Alternatively indulge in a relaxing riverside meal and enjoy the scenery at either of the public houses over looking the River Bure, there is a plentiful choice for things to do just minutes from your new home at Bure Gardens.

B + G

Coltishall itself boasts an array of local amenities that include several quality Cafes, a Delicatessen and Bakery together with a quality Butchers. There is a village shop for those day-to-day essentials and a numerous choice of takeaways to satisfy most palettes.

For those special dining experiences you can enjoy the superb award winning food at the Norfolk Mead restaurant, made with fresh local ingredients, sourced from Norfolk's finest farms.

From Bowls to acrobatic classes and Brownies, the Coltishall Village Hall is bustling community hub hosting a range of activities throughout the year. There is a club for everyone, with local football clubs such as Bure Valley FC and Wroxham FC offering access to clubs from the ages of 3 upwards.

Why not experience a nostalgic trip by steam on the Bure Valley Railway. Norfolk's longest narrow gauge railway runs between Aylsham and Wroxham with intermediate halts at Brampton, Buxton and Coltishall.

City of Stories

If you are not familiar with the wonderful city of Norwich and all it has to offer, you can drive, or take the train from the nearby Hoveton and Wroxham Train Station to explore further.

Norwich boasts theatres, cinemas, beautiful restaurants, lively bars, an impressive array of traditional and modern pubs, museums and historic buildings such as the Castle Museum and Norwich Cathedral, as well as the renowned and award winning 900 year old Norwich Market.

It's an aspirational place to shop with many unique and independent businesses in the historic Norwich Lanes area, as well as the favourite and well known retailers holding prime positions around the two indoor shopping centres. For international travel Norwich Airport is less than 10 miles from your new home.

Winterton- on-Sea, Sea Palling and beyond

The Broads National Park is home to a network of waterways and covers over a 100 square miles of Norfolk and Suffolk countryside. It's the perfect setting for walking, boating and relaxing. It's easy to get to and promises stunning views and wonderful wildlife. The neighbouring village of Wroxham is under 4 miles away, popular for boating holidays and family days out this bustling village is also the home of the Norfolk Broads Yacht Club.

Whatever your evening or weekend plans are, there are a choice of coastal spots for everyone. From quiet and rugged beaches or penny slot machines and seaside traditions, there is a coastal spot for everyone within easy reach, to enjoy the Big Norfolk Skies. Young families can also enjoy outdoor fun and adventure at the nearby Bewilderwood, a haven for creating childhood memories that is only a 10 minute drive from your new home.

Coltishall is around 14 miles from the beautiful and quiet east coast dunes stretching from Sea Palling to Horsey. It is here where you can find seals on the beach during the winter season, and then perhaps enjoy a pub lunch in one of the many seaside villages nearby. Go further and beyond to the rest of the North Norfolk Heritage Coast and enjoy the majesty of this region at your own pace.

Often referred to as the 'Capital of the Norfolk Broads', Wroxham is renowned as the destination to start your day trip or holiday exploring the county's famous waterways. You can hire day boats and bicycles from this bustling town, go on a guided river trip with Broads Tours, or head to the station and take a ride on the Bure Valley Railway.

Its vast range of traditional shops and restaurants make it a must-visit on the weekends.

From its unique position beside the River Bure, the well-loved village of Hoveton easily earns its reputation as 'the Heart of the Norfolk Broads'.

Within reach of the dramatic landscapes, big skies and wide horizons of North Norfolk coast and the rare beauty of the Broads and its picturesque waterways, the village is also just 2 miles from Coltishall.

Outdoor Designs

Uniquely Designed Kitchens

Whether your lifestyle demands your kitchen to be a beautiful space to entertain and impress your guests, or be practical for a busy family lifestyle, these kitchens are designed with all of these purposes in mind.

With every appliance and locally sourced quartz worktops included, our individually created kitchens will be the envy of many.

We put as much effort into the outdoor spaces as we do the indoor ones.

The front enclosures at Bure Gardens are thoughtfully landscaped to complement not just your home but the overall feeling of quality. This includes our carefully designed block paving colours to suit the development.

Location

Our philosophy is to build homes that give you room to breathe both inside and out, and the homes at Bure Gardens precisely offer that. The choice of 2-4 bedroom homes means there will almost certainly be a home that's ideal for you and your needs.

All the homes have also been designed to be as energy efficient as possible and they all come with a two-year warranty from Crocus Homes and a 10 year National House-Building Council warranty.
