Description

Nestled in the village of Stoodleigh is this striking detached residence. This grade II listed cottage is well presented and benefits from beautiful gardens. The perfect position being rural, yet very accessible being only approx 6 miles from Tiverton and approx 5 miles from Bampton.

Court Gardens Cottage is believed to date back to the late 1800's and originally was a cottage for the gardener of the estate. Upon approaching the property is a sizeable parking area next to the house with additional parking for two cars on the external driveway. Beautifully presented gardens wrap around the property. Upon opening the porch is a great space for storing boots and coats. The kitchen enjoys views over the fantastic garden. Please note there is planning permission to extend this home. Flowing seamlessly from the kitchen is a breakfast room/study. From here you can access the formal dining room which is dual aspect also overlooking the rear garden, an archway leads to the lounge. The lounge is a lovely room and is dual aspect with the focal point being a wood burning stove. Completing the ground floor is a shower room. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms one of which has a feature fireplace. A further single bedroom and a family bathroom with shower over.

Externally there is a great range of outbuildings. There are two gardens, the formal garden wraps around the home. Which is mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and borders, there is a seating area which is great for dining alfresco. There is also a further patio area with seating areas around the garden. Beyond the outbuildings you will find the south facing market garden, which is a fabulous space with an orchard, vegetable garden with raised beds and a greenhouse.
