Location

Oxborough is pleasant conservation village within Norfolk, situated approximately 7 miles from the bustling market town of Swaffham and approximately 9 miles from Downham Market, where there is a direct railway line to London King's Cross. Oxborough is famous because of its Church, Saint John the Evangelist and Oxborough Hall, which is the ancestral home of the Bedingfield family, now being owned by the National Trust and open to the general public. There is also the highly-regarded Bedingfield Arms, a coaching Inn since 1783, serving a range of local ales and quality food, which overlooks the village green.

Further amenities can be found within nearby Swaffham, which boasts many public houses, restaurants and cafes, together with supermarket facilities and smaller shops. Within the town there are schooling facilities for all ages and sport and leisure facilities. Swaffham market is held every Saturday and has stalls including fresh meat, fruit & vegetables, cheeses, eggs, housewares, confectionery, tools and plants.
