If you're looking for a Bungalow to make your own, look no further as this detached home is the perfect blank canvas. Book your tour today with a local office at County Chambers, Melton Mowbray.

Description

This bungalow is perfect if you are looking for a property to put your own stamp on. It's offered with No Chain Sale and is in a very desirable part of Melton. The property is dominated by an open plan living room / dining area which has direct access to the kitchen which is well equipped with plenty of cupboards, work surface areas and appliance space. There are two double bedrooms and a bathroom that is fitted with a matching suite to include panel enclosed bath with shower over, WC and wash hand basin.

To the outside there are both front and rear gardens, maintained to a high standard. The rear garden has a patio seating area, neatly trimmed lawn and a variety of plants and shrubs. There is also access to the garage which has power and lighting and a metal up and over door with driveway parking leading to it.

This property will suit those buyers looking to downsize and offers a great "blank canvas" to put your mark on, while also being a property that you could comfortably move into. As stated, there is No Chain, so we are expecting a lot of interest.
