BELTON-IN-RUTLAND

The charming village of Belton in Rutland lies about 4 miles to the west of Uppingham and is set in an area of delightful open farmland with rolling hills.

It is a popular commuter centre close to the A47 trunk road and is within a 30 min drive of Oakham, Stamford and Market Harborough.

In the village there is a public house and church which both act as a hub for the many social, sporting and leisure activities organised in this welcoming village. All main shopping facilities are available in the nearby towns of Oakham and Uppingham.

The village also has an excellent bus service which runs a two hourly service between Leicester and Uppingham with services connecting to Peterborough, Oakham, Stamford and surrounding district.

There is a pre-school in the village and also a bus service which collects children for the local authority schools and returns them in the evening. In addition there are public schools in Oakham, Uppingham and Stamford.

Leisure facilities in the area are good with many beautiful cycling, horse riding and walking routes directly from the village.

Rutland Water is only a few miles away and one can enjoy birdwatching, fishing, sailing, windsurfing or just a stroll or cycle ride around the shores of the lake, and there are golf courses at Rutland Water, Luffenham Heath and Burghley Park.
