BELTON-IN-RUTLAND

The charming village of Belton in Rutland lies about 4 miles to the west of Uppingham and is set in an area of delightful open farmland with rolling hills.

It is a popular commuter centre close to the A47 trunk road and is within a 30 min drive of Oakham, Stamford and Market Harborough.

In the village there is a public house and church which both act as a hub for the many social, sporting and leisure activities organised in this welcoming village. All main shopping facilities are available in the nearby towns of Oakham and Uppingham.

The village also has an excellent bus service which runs a two hourly service between Leicester and Uppingham with services connecting to Peterborough, Oakham, Stamford and surrounding district.

There is a pre-school in the village and also a bus service which collects children for the local authority schools and returns them in the evening. In addition there are public schools in Oakham, Uppingham and Stamford.

Leisure facilities in the area are good with many beautiful cycling, horse riding and walking routes directly from the village.

Rutland Water is only a few miles away and one can enjoy birdwatching, fishing, sailing, windsurfing or just a stroll or cycle ride around the shores of the lake, and there are golf courses at Rutland Water, Luffenham Heath and Burghley Park.

DIRECTIONS

From Murray's Uppingham office turn right onto the High Street following the one-way system and turn left at the bottom. Drive up to the traffic lights and turn right onto Ayston Road. Continue driving out of the town and turning left at the roundabout, on to the A47 towards Leicester. Proceed along the A47 taking the turning on the right signposted Belton-in-Rutland, and Belton Hall will be found on the left hand side. Having entered through the gated access, park in the car park to the other side, at the end of the drive, where the property will be found on the left-hand side overlooking the communal gardens.
