DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity has arisen to purchase a prominent and substantial Grade II Listed property located in the Market Place, in the heart of the historic market town of Uppingham in the county of Rutland.

The property dates from the late 16th / early 17th Century with later additions, formerly known as "Ye Olde Spyre Restaurant" and latterly being a Pharmacy and offices.

The property is currently divided into a ground floor retail unit extending to approximately 960 sq ft and an independent suite of offices on the first and second floors of this building, which can be converted to apartments STPP. The property is close to the town Church, the Post Office and a Public House and looks directly over the Market Place. The first and second floor offices can be accessed independently of the ground floor via an external door from Market Place or alternatively via an internal door linking the ground and first floor units. The building would be suitable for a variety of uses, subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

Uppingham is a very pretty and popular market town in the county of Rutland and has a good catchment area for the villages in close proximity to the town. The town currently has a population of approximately 5,000 people and benefits from a good range of successful retailers from a variety of High Street names for example Boots the Chemists, Co op

Super Store and Timpsons to a number of smaller independent retailers.
