GRETTON

Gretton is a delightful village in the north eastern corner of Northamptonshire. Village facilities include a pub, village hall, coffee shop, church, playing fields and a highly regarded primary school. The school feeds into good secondary education in the surrounding towns.

The village is close to a number of towns including Uppingham, Oakham, Corby and Kettering where there are many shops catering for most needs together with other facilities.

For commuters Gretton is ideally situated for commuting to a number of major centres including Peterborough, Northampton, Leicester, Stamford, in addition to Kettering, Corby etc. It is also within easy driving distance of the A14 being the A1/M1 link and therefore into England's motorway system. At nearby Corby Station (approximately 5 miles) and Kettering (approximately 12 miles), there are good train services to London St Pancras with frequent services.

Leisure pursuits are many and varied in the area including cricket, golf, rugby football, football, tennis, bowls, horse riding, walking, bird watching and sailing on nearby Rutland Water.
