A wonderful opportunity to acquire a character detached cottage, dating back to the Victorian times and situated in the centre of a popular Lincolnshire Wolds village. The property has been successfully let out as a holiday cottage in recent years and has been lovingly improved by the current owners to provide an attractive and versatile period property.

Situation

The village benefits from having a number of amenities including a primary school, public house, Post Office and village shop and village hall and enjoys many public footpaths including part of the Viking Way. It is also conveniently situated for the market towns of Louth to the north east and Horncastle to south .There are many good walks and cycle routes straight from the door into the rolling hills of the Lincolnshire Wolds or travel east and visit the sandy beaches that run all the way along the coast from Mablethorpe to Skegness.

Area

Inland the City of Lincoln is around 30 minutes drive, with its famous Cathedral, Castle and Brayford Wharf where you can eat in drink as you watch the boats cruise slowly by. The Georgian market town of Louth is approximately 10-20 minutes drive with many good restaurants, shops and it still boasts three markets a week to enjoy.

Additional Information

Horncastle about 15 minutes drive and is a must for antique and curio collectors as it has huge selection of Antique shops and centres to browse. The village Post Office, shop and tearoom is around 30 yards away and public house is around 200 yards.
